Missionary Update: Coleman

For a long time now, we have been praying for more adults at Fuente (including more men), and God brought a new family to our church in February! The husband is a believer, but the wife is not, so please pray for her salvation. On top of that, for three weeks in a row, we had an attendance of around 30 people in our Sunday service. When I look back a year ago to services where we had only 8-9 people, I can only praise God for how HE is growing our church. In February, God also opened doors for us to go into two public schools to gift New Testaments to all of the students of reading age. One of those schools is only two blocks from church, and the director has given us an open door to come back weekly to use those Bibles to teach reading comprehension. In the youngest classes, we also were invited to come teach Bible stories. Pray for my coworkers as they begin this ongoing ministry (Lord-willing I will be able to join them when I return in July from my short furlough).
